

To whom it may concern,

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Using the Public Airwaves to give republicans free air time to run a political smear of John Kerry is wrong two weeks before an election. This is a company that can reach 24 percent of the market.

You know its wrong, so what are you going to do about it!